Presidential Address

We last met in Morgantown October 3, 2013 for a joint meeting with NALA and the Appalachian group in conjunction with the Appalachian Land Institute (ALI). We had a great turn out for the ALI and dinner. The evening was concluded with entertainment by a great Country and Western band, the Country Superstars. If you missed them; you also missed seeing me dance with my lovely wife.

As promised in this spot last month, I have an exciting announcement for all our WV MLBC members. I was approached by Ben King, independent Landman and member of the MLBC, with the idea of an Organizational License Plate for the "Professional Landman".

Presidential Address Continued

Under the Nonprofit Special Plate Program, authorized by the 2010 West Virginia legislature, the WV DMV Commissioner has approved our application. Ben is meeting with the Special Plates Supervisor to start work on the content of the application used to purchase the plates on October 31.

We have a few more steps to go through before we can start the application process and one of those steps I just mentioned, the Application. Next I believe is the approval of the art-work. After all these requirements have been met the MLBC can start accepting applications for the plates; which will in fact be the last requirement we have to fulfill. In order for us to obtain the plates we must have no less than 250 plate applications. Judging from the reaction I received in my office this should be no problem.

The Plate design shown is only a draft and could be changed by the state. Ben hopes to have an application on our website by the first of the year or sooner. The cost of the plate will be around $70.00 submitted with the application and yearly renewal cost of $45.00. You can bet I will be one of the first to apply!

For our members in Pennsylvania and Ohio, Ben has agreed to Chair the Committee for the MLBC Special Plate Program and will start checking on the process in Pennsylvania and Ohio. He is looking for a couple of members to help out as the program gets rolling so if you wish to be part of this committee please contact Ben King at benjaminking@suddenlink.net or (304)545-5464. Ben, thank you for your hard work to put this together.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the Grandpointe Conference Center in Vienna, WV on November 14. The MLBC dinner meeting will be featuring something new and different for the MLBC, Tom Dean with EQT will be offering a presentation on Safety.

Charles E. "Chuck" Heilmann

Spotlight on Our Officers

John Kimbleton, CPL - MLBC Treasurer

Having been a member of the MLBC for some time now, and hearing his name stirred around, I had yet to make a personal introduction to our current MLBC Treasurer and all around nice guy John Kimbleton. As I made my way to his office located at Jane Lew, West Virginia, I found myself looking for him in the wrong section of the Jane Lew industrial park, only to find him tucked away in one of the long hallways in the maze that is the Chesapeake Energy building in Jane Lew. After we exchanged a few pleasantries and general industry chit-chat, I asked him about his introduction to the field of Land Services.

His story begins in the recesses of the classified section of his local paper where he came across an ad for work with Mason Dixon Energy. He was immediately hired as an abstractor and courthouse researcher under the tutelage of Greg Zerkel, where he grew to become the now present manager of Right of Way operations for Access Midstream. His career has taken him all over the Appalachian Basin, from as far north as New York to the southern reaches of Eastern Kentucky with points in between of Northern Pennsylvania and Ohio that helped to solidify his position as an industry leader in the field of Oil and Gas. As Treasurer of the MLBC it is John's duty to prepare an annual financial statement reflecting the financial condition of the chapter, to pay all the expenses of the chapter and help in the collection of dues from all its members.

On a more personal level, many people may not know that John has also proudly served his country overseas in Iraq as part of his local National Guard unit. He had a yearlong deployment in Iraq to help further the cause of American freedom and protect us here in the homeland from the ever present threat of Global Terrorism. I think it goes without saying that the gratitude that all Americans feel on behalf of our brave soldiers is immeasurable and will never be forgotten.

When John was asked about what he felt was his greatest accomplishment, his answer was somewhat surprising. He discussed at length about a project he worked on in Ohio a few years back that in his words "was the greatest time of his life" he went on to detail the project and spoke with reverence about the crew that was assembled with him and the "freedom" of the work involved. In this industry more than any other, we have a more results driven merit system that leads to more freedom in the workplace and with men like John overseeing that freedom whether it be abroad or right here where we live and work, the MLBC along with many other men like John Kimbleton, we rest assured that our interest will be safe and secure for years to come.

Ms. Tara White
PO Box 955
Bridgeport, WV 26330-0955

Dear Ms. White:

Thank you for your gift on behalf of Junior Achievement of Western Pennsylvania’s Board of Directors, volunteers, staff, and, most importantly, the nearly 68,000 kindergarten through high school students we serve. Your support of Junior Achievement provides a visible and meaningful demonstration of your commitment to youth in our community.

Schools in our community look to Junior Achievement to provide supplemental learning experiences that help young people develop the competence, confidence, and character to make smart academic and economic decisions. JA programs are a vital part of a widespread effort to improve graduation rates and help students develop skills needed to compete in today’s global economy. We need your help to meet the demand for our programs, and we are sincerely grateful for your support.

Please visit our website at www.jawestempa.org to learn more about the many programs and initiatives we are offering to students, teachers, and parents.

Again, thank you for sharing JA’s vision for tomorrow’s youth and recognizing the value of hands-on, grade specific programs.

Your Gift. Their Future.

Sincerely,

Dennis P. Gilfoyle
President
Junior Achievement of Western Pennsylvania
